New York State Demographic Trends

New York State Office for the Aging
Department of State

Bob Scardamalia
NYS Dept. of Economic Development
September 4, 2008
• Demographic Forces Shaping New York’s Population
• Migration and Regional Patterns
• Age and Diversity
• Dependency and Housing
Historical Population Change
U.S. and New York State, 1930 to 2007

-5.0
0.0
5.0
10.0
15.0
20.0
25.0
Percent Change

High Foreign Immigration
Baby Boom Growth
Declining Fertility
Immigration Quotas
Rural/Urban Migration
Economic Downturn
High Foreign Immigration/Baby Boom Echo/Improved Economy
Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Migration and Regional Patterns
In-Migrants to New York by Origin, All Ages, 1995 to 2000

Foreign 49%
Florida 5%
Midwest 6%
Other So. States 12%
California 5%
Other NE State 12%
New Jersey 7%
Other West. States 4%

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Out-Migrants from New York by Destination, All Ages, 1995 to 2000

- New Jersey: 13%
- California: 6%
- Other West. States: 7%
- Midwest: 8%
- Florida: 19%
- Other NE States: 19%
- Other So. States: 28%

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
In-Migrants to New York by Origin, 65 and Over, 1995 to 2000

1. Foreign: 41%
2. Florida: 18%
3. Other So. States: 11%
4. California: 4%
5. Other West. States: 3%
6. New Jersey: 9%
7. Other NE State: 10%
8. Midwest: 4%

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Out-Migrants from New York by Destination, 65 and Over, 1995 to 2000

- Florida: 39%
- Other Southern States: 19%
- California: 4%
- Other Western States: 6%
- New Jersey: 14%
- Other Northeast States: 19%
- Midwest: 4%

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Out-Migrants 65 and Over,
Selected Destinations, 1995 to 2000

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Age and Diversity
Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Growth in the Elderly Population, 2000 to 2030

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census, Cornell Program on Applied Demographics
Percent Change by Race and Hispanic Origin,
Population 65 and Over, 2000 to 2007

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Dependency and Housing
Living Arrangements of Persons 65 and Over, New York State, 2000

- Family Households: 62%
- Living Alone: 30%
- Group Quarters: 6%
- Other Non-relatives: 2%

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Homeownership of Householders 65 and Over, 2006

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Percent of the 65 and Over Population with Various Disabilities, New York State, 2000

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census
Caregivers: Traditional Supply and Demand
2000 to 2030

Percent Change

Women 25 to 54
Population 65 and Over

New York State
Upstate
Downstate

Source: Cornell Program on Applied Demographics
Dependency Ratio, New York State 1950 to 2030

Source: U.S. Bureau of the Census